

About Acacia University

Acacia University, Arizona, US, stands as a symbol of regeneration, perseverance, and integrity and is on a mission to make learning a long-lasting, invigorating experience.

Acacia's origin dates back to 2003 when Educational Cyberconnections, Inc. began a partner-ship with the Commission on International and Trans-Regional Accreditation (CITA) to provide onsite training to CITA schools in Egypt, Pakistan, United Emirates, and China. This training created a demand for additional and continuing training that resulted in establishing an onsite and online program under the title of CITA Teacher Certification Program. Then in 2005, Power-Ed and CITA developed and delivered a web-based curriculum (24 credits) that could be delivered via the Internet throughout the world. The school became the American Graduate School of Education and the name change to Acacia University was approved by the State Board for Private Postsecondary Education - State of Arizona on May 11, 2012, effective June 1, 2011.

Acacia University provides accessible, quality education to a multi-cultural, global learning community through online/distance learning. As technology advances and students look for greater flexibility and accessibility with education, Acacia utilizes the capabilities of digital pedagogies to create new experiences and services.

Acacia offers academic programs at the master's level in elementary education, secondary education, English as a second language, and educational administration as well as a doctorate in educational leadership. It also features non-degree studies to provide focused training in specialized areas for adult learners.

Designed by educators to envisage the possibilities of the learner's career, the educational programs offered by Acacia are affordable, convenient, supportive, and relevant.

Acacia University envisions a change by empowering learners to expand their abilities, revive their passion in their respective fields, and develop their capacities for new roles. Acacia commits to provide unparalleled learning standards by delivering the highest quality educational programs through smart, innovative forms of learning.

Acacia redefines education and helps learners realize their full potential, propelling them into excellence by delivering education through innovative forms of online learning.

Why Acacia University?

Acacia University, a pioneer in distance learning since its founding in 2003, consistently meets the needs of professionals whose geographic, professional, or personal time constraints may potentially limit success at traditional brick-and-mortar schools. Acacia University provides quality educational opportunities for learners:

- Affordability
- Convenience
- Practicality
- Qualified Professors
- Cohorts and Learning Communities
- Applicability
- Accredited: Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) ensures that the institution meets a recognized set of standards in distance education

Mission

Acacia University's mission is to develop creative, innovative ideas amongst learners, and deploy contemporary technology to develop relevant learning models that are scalable, accessible, and affordable, with a focus on developing ethical, principled world leaders who can change the world.

Vision

Program Goal

The doctoral program develops scholar-practitioners who will learn and practice advanced skills in designing, implementing, and analyzing effective research-based strategies in school/district leadership so they can provide active, positive, and effective leadership in the school environment. All students enrolled in the Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership degree program will demonstrate and apply knowledge and skills related to PSEL and NELP standards.

- * Acacia University offers graduate degrees for educators to achieve their professional goals. Completion of a degree program in itself does not constitute having a professional credential. Professional certifications and licenses are governed by boards empowered via State laws and/or professional organizations and commissions. Therefore, Acacia programs are NOT a pathway to teacher licensures in the US.

Staffing options are explored in the context of school goals and student needs. The provision of professional development, supervision, and teacher evaluation are presented with applied projects provided to build understanding of personnel administration. This graduate-level course introduces leadership standards, theories, critical success factors, and practices that educational leaders need to be effective supervisors. The course addresses the components of effective school and teaching theories that lead to school improvement. Students will develop leadership and supervisory platforms and professional development plans for individuals and schools. Various supervisory styles studied will include clinical supervision, the Charlotte Danielson model, and differentiated supervision. Special issues include hiring, mentoring, tenure, dismissal, and remediation plans. By the end of this course, students will be able to distinguish between supervision, evaluation, and professional development.

EDA600D: International Virtual Leadership Residency

Prerequisites All 500-level courses Credits 3

Course Length 1 weeks Type Core

The International Virtual Leadership Residency will occur online during a one-week period. This residency will allow students to meet with faculty members; enhance writing, research, and critical-thinking skills; share experiences and insights with students with similar interests; and work directly with cohort members.

EDA599D: Principles of Continuous Improvement

Prerequisites EDA509D Credits 3 Course Length 8 weeks Type Elective

This course addresses the knowledge and skills needed to provide systematic and systemic planning and implementation of strategic initiatives. Principles of school improvement, strategic planning, organizing for effectiveness, and on going involvement of stakeholders related to the educational institution are explored through individual and collaborative projects. The course focuses on the process of continuous review and evaluation of activities, which lead to improved results. The goal of this course is to learn action research methods and practice the process of continuous school improvement. Students will experience designing, conducting, analyzing, and presenting an action research project that demonstrates aspects of the school improvement process.

EDA679D: Foundations of American Education

Prerequisites	All 500-leve	el cour	ses	Cred	lits	6
Course Length	16 weeks	Туре	С	ore

Required Textbook: Foundations of American Education, 8e

This course explores the influences on education within the larger social, political, economic, legal and cultural environment – from the local community to the global settings. A brief overview is included of the historical, philosophical, and social foundations of education and the role of schooling in a democratic society. Most candidates will have familiarity with such foundational theories from prior degree programs. Familiarity with school structures and governance at various levels provides understanding of the context in which education takes place. This includes school site and local communities; the role of elected school boards, superintendents, and other administrators; the functions of intermediary agencies, such as county or regional offices of education; education as a constitutional state responsibility, including development of laws and policies; the evolving role of the federal government; and a perspective on education in our world, our global community.

EDA649D: Advanced Leadership and Effective Decision Making

Prerequisites	All 500-leve	el cours	ses	Crec	lits	6
Course Lengt	h 16 weeks	Туре		Core

This course is designed to provide an in-depth study of leadership theories and research beginning with an historical overview of traditional approaches and showing how they have evolved over time, not only in education, but also surveying the science of administration and management as a profession in other fields, such as business, political and military and volunteer organizations. Candidates will learn about the philosophical and historical foundations of various approaches. Particular attention will be given to current leadership and administrative practices in educational settings, such as visionary leadership, servant leadership, inclusive and collaborative leadership, empowerment, and leadership in an increasingly diverse environment both within, and external to, educational organizations.

EDA709D: Online Internship for Educational Leaders

Prerequisites All 500-level courses Credits 3

Course Length 16 weeks Type Core

The Online Internship class involves learning and implementing mentoring skills online to students in educational administration classes. This online internship is arranged by the course professor with other instructors/professors in the master's or doctoral administration courses. The Doctoral Program Advisor oversees the Online Internship and oversees the supervision of the Doctoral Intern. The internship encompasses classroom and/or online observations and mentoring, demonstrations, modeling, feedback, and practice applying prior learned skills and knowledge in educational leadership. Application of the PSEL and NELP standards is required. The experience also includes research, analysis, surveys, interviews, discussions with others, and the maintenance of an e-folio. Regularly scheduled online meetings with the professor are scheduled at mutually agreed upon times. Experience gained in the Online Internship, as recorded in the e-folio, will be summarized and presented in a final report.

EDA710D: Onsite Internship for Educational Leaders

The Onsite Internship involves an administrative Internship of 21 weeks. The Internship is arranged by Acacia University in cooperation with a school administrator where the internship will occur. The internship focuses on an individualized applied project determined by the Graduate Intern, the cooperating school principal and/or district administrator, and the Doctoral Program Advisor. The Onsite Internship requires 270 clock hours of experience under the supervision of a certified school or district administrator. The internship encompasses classroom observations and mentoring, demonstrations, modeling, feedback, and practice applying prior learned skills. Application of the PSEL and NELP standards is required. The experience also includes research, analysis, surveys, interviews, discussions with others, and the maintenance of an e-folio. The onsite experience will involve school or district-related administrative projects planned cooperatively with the principal/administrator and the online professors. Regularly scheduled online meetings with the professor and with the onsite administrator will be scheduled at mutually agreed upon times. Experience gained in the Onsite Internship will be summarized and presented in a final Internship report.

EDA718D: Advanced Research Methods

Required Textbook: Educational Research: Planning, Conducting and Evaluating Quantitative and Qualitative Research, 6e This course will include foundational elements for conducting independent, original research. Candidates will learn about methods of formative and summative evaluation for continuous improvement of practices in the educational environment. Candidates will also apply concepts and practice skills in research design, data collection, data analysis, and presentation of results. Students will also be presented with topics in Evaluation Research, Data Analysis and Interpretation, Qualitative and Quantitative Research Methods, Approaches to Research Design and Data Analysis, and Statistical treatment of data.

EDA719D: Action Research Proposal

Prerequisites EDA718D Credits 6 Course Length 16 weeks Type Capstone

The purpose of this seminar is to provide information and support for students as they develop dissertation proposals for the Ed.D. in Educational Leadership program. Students will also apply concepts and practice skills in research design. Students will develop and refine their action research topics and ideas, write drafts of their proposals, and establish a doctoral committee of four committee members. This course refreshes doctoral candidates on the basic concepts of action research, focusing on conducting literature reviews, understanding theory, defining research problems and methods, collecting and analyzing data, communicating findings, and applying research to solving educational problems. In addition, students should be able to understand the purposes, assumptions, and logic inherent in research methodologies.

EDA720D: Action Research Dissertation

Prerequisites EDA719D Credits 6 Course Length 16 weeks Type Capstone

Action Research Dissertation is intended to assist the Doctoral Candidate (DC) in the transition from coursework to dissertation. The outcome of this course is the completion of a dissertation that contributes to educational knowledge. The doctoral candidate will select a topic of interest based on an educational issue or problem and critically analyze and evaluate existing knowledge. Action research will be conducted to examine the problem. Conclusions based on findings should include implications for better educational practice. This course will review proposal components, with particular emphasis on research design and developing the literature review and will also focus on key issues such as dissertation format standards, psychological and time management demands, HSIRB topics, and project management.

Note: Students may end up taking more units of dissertation (EDA7201D) credit than they can count toward their degree because students must register for the dissertation continuation course each eight-week session while working on their dissertation. Students must complete their dissertation within five years of completing 600-level courses.
